

Me. Eve TESSERA is attorney-at-law at the French bar (Paris) and the Italian Bar (Verona). She is dealing with commercial and international cases, in France and in Italy.

In France (2007-2009), she worked as legal adviser on the Corporate Social Responsibility in an association of lawyers based in Paris. In particular, she dealt with cases in the Republic of Congo, the Democratic Republic of Congo, and Guatemala by writing reports and carrying out legal activities. She also dealt with a Specific Instance in Ireland in accordance with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises.

In Guatemala (2006-2007), she worked as legal adviser and dealt with cases before the Inter American Court of Human Rights.

In Italy, she is a founding member of "Respect Human Rights" which is an association of training for the proceedings before the European Court of Human Rights.

Moreover Me. Eve Tessera is engaged in associative and voluntary activities as member of the commission Human rights of the European Lawyer's Union and member coordinator of "Avvocato di Strada" Organization (Italian Legal Aid Network for the Homeless).